Evansville, IN 47708

Legal Aspects of Search and Seizure June 22, 2011

Course Description

Indiana search and seizure law is unique. Nationally marketed seminars only deal with generic search and seizure concepts and may leave officers with incorrect notions about Indiana search and seizure requirements. In contrast, this course provides not only an overview of the established case law surrounding search and seizure but also examines recent Indiana Supreme Court decisions relevant to search and seizure.

About the Instructor

Lisa Kay Decker is an attorney who has practiced law for more than twenty-five years in the State of Indiana. She was a police officer in Bloomington, Indiana and later became a cum laude graduate of the Indiana University School of Law.

Who should attend?

Course Level: Law Enforcement Patrol Officers, Detectives, Crime Scene Officers, Supervisors and Commanders. Computers are NOT required for this course.
